FAQs – Support and resources

When are the examinations taken?

Information about when the examinations can be taken can be found in the syllabus. You can download the syllabus from Teacher Support.

Examination dates are listed in the exam timetable which you can download from our public website, or speak to the Examinations Officer at your centre.

What resources are available to support Cambridge syllabuses?

Teaching resources can be found on the Teacher Support page for your syllabus.

For syllabuses, specimen papers, past papers, mark schemes and examiner reports look under the Syllabus Materials tab.

For support materials, including Schemes of Work* and Example Candidate Responses*, look under the Teaching Materials tab. A Coursework Handbook is also available but too large to download. Download the Coursework Handbook Notice for information about how to order the Coursework Handbook.

The Resource List tab directs you to endorsed and suggested resources including textbooks and websites. You can also access these from the Resource Centre on our public website.

For more details about the support types available, and how to use them for planning, preparing, teaching, assessing and revision, see our guide Cambridge teacher support, which can be downloaded from the Teacher Support homepage under Teacher Support Resources.

You can also visit our Discussion Forums, where teachers discuss resources and teaching methods, and you can ask questions and receive a response from our subject expert moderator or from other Cambridge teachers in our Community.

What textbooks are available for my subject?

From the Resource List tab on the Teacher Support page for your syllabus you can search for textbooks for your subject. No particular book is necessary for a course and teachers are advised to choose the textbook that best suits their needs. Many of our syllabuses are supported by a range of different endorsed textbooks to ensure that schools have choice. There is information on the back of endorsed textbooks about which examination series it was first produced for.

Endorsed resources go through a rigorous quality-assurance process to make sure they closely reflect the syllabus and are appropriate for Cambridge schools worldwide. Resources may be 'endorsed for full syllabus coverage' or endorsed to cover specific sections, topics or approaches. Look for the specific 'endorsed for...' logo on the resource.

FAQs – Support and resources

How can I find out about any changes to the syllabus?

This information can be found on the inside cover of the syllabus, which can be downloaded from Teacher Support. Changes are described in detail within this section. Throughout the syllabus, any significant changes are indicated by black vertical lines either side of the text.

If a syllabus update document is listed next to a syllabus this is notification that the syllabus has been updated to reflect a change. The changes that have been made will be clearly indicated in the syllabus update.

What can students take into their exams?

Guidance for use of equipment in examinations, including use of dictionaries and calculators, is provided in the Cambridge Handbook from our public website. A list of unauthorised materials is also included.

For help or information about administering qualifications it is often useful to speak to the Examinations Officer at your centre.

FAQs – Subject Content and Assessment

Can candidates take all of the options?

No, a candidate cannot take all of the options, only one option can be entered. Candidates would not be able to cover the skills and content involved in multiple options adequately. This would also detrimentally affect the student's performance in the Project.

Do candidates have to base their design projects on their chosen option?

Yes, candidates' projects should be centred on the chosen option in Part 2 of the syllabus content.

When should the Project be done?

It is recommended that candidates undertake their Project in the final year of a two year course so that the option material will have been covered before then. It is expected that the work should take about two terms.

Should we use photographic evidence when submitting projects?

Photographic evidence of the finished product should be submitted along with all other evidence. The photographs will need to be clear and in some cases you may want to take more than one view of the product. Note that artefacts and/or models should not be sent through the post to Cambridge.

FAQs – Subject Content and Assessment

Where can I find more information about the Project?

As well as information in the syllabus there is also a Coursework Handbook that teachers delivering this course are advised to obtain. Due to the size of the file, which contains a lot of images, you will need to order it through the Catalogue of Resources. Download the Coursework Handbook Notice from the Teaching Materials tab on Teacher Support for more information about how to order.

The handbook aims to assist teachers in the guidance and development of coursework projects with their candidates and to apply the assessment criteria in a confident and consistent way. It clarifies the syllabus requirements, provides guidance on the development of coursework projects and explains, with marked examples, how the assessment criteria should be applied.
