Mark Scheme  2006 examination - June series

Mark schemes are prepared by the Principal Examiner and considered, together with the relevant questions, by a panel of subject teachers. This mark scheme includes any amendments made at the standardisation meeting attended by all examiners and is the scheme which was used by them in this examination. The standardisation meeting ensures that the mark scheme covers the candidates' responses to questions and that every examiner understands and applies it in the same correct way. As preparation for the standardisation meeting each examiner analyses a number of candidates' scripts: alternative answers not already covered by the mark scheme are discussed at the meeting and legislated for. If, after this meeting, examiners encounter unusual answers which have not been discussed at the meeting they are required to refer these to the Principal Examiner.

It must be stressed that a mark scheme is a working document, in many cases further developed and expanded on the basis of candidates' reactions to a particular paper. Assumptions about future mark schemes on the basis of one year's document should be avoided; whilst the guiding principles of assessment remain constant, details will change, depending on the content of a particular examination paper.

MARK SCHEME

INSTRUCTIONS TO EXAMINERS

You should remember that your marking standards should reflect the levels of performance of Advanced Level candidates, mainly 18 years old, writing under examination conditions.

Positive Marking

You should be positive in your marking, giving credit for what is there rather than being too conscious of what is not. Do not deduct marks for irrelevant or incorrect answers as candidates penalise themselves in terms of the time they have spent.

Mark Range

You should use the whole mark range available in the mark scheme. Where the candidate's response to a question is such that the mark scheme permits full marks to be awarded, full marks must be given. A perfect answer is not required. Conversely, if the candidate's answer does not deserve credit, then no marks should be given.

Alternative Answers / Layout

The answers given in the mark scheme are not exhaustive and other answers may be valid. If this occurs, examiners should refer to their Team Leader for guidance. Similarly, candidates may set out their accounts in either a vertical or horizontal format. Both methods are acceptable.

Own Figure Rule

In cases where candidates are required to make calculations, arithmetic errors can be made so that the final or intermediate stages are incorrect. To avoid a candidate being penalised repeatedly for an initial error, candidates can be awarded marks where they have used the correct method with their own (incorrect) figures. Examiners are asked to annotate a script with OF where marks have been allocated on this basis. OF always makes the assumption that there are no extraneous items. Similarly, OF marks can be awarded where candidates make correct conclusions or inferences from their incorrect calculations.

Quality of Written Communication (QWC)

Once the whole script has been marked the work of the candidate should be assessed for the Quality of Written Communication, using the criteria at the end of the mark scheme. The mark should be shown separately on the candidate's script.

Synoptic Assessment

Synoptic assessment is located in the last question. Candidates will be required to integrate their knowledge, understanding and skills learned in different parts of the A Level course.

Tom and Geraldine have been in partnership for a number of years as building contractors. share profits and losses equally. The balances on their current accounts at 30 April 2006, after th preparation of their draft final accounts, were Tom $£ 3720$ (cr) and Geraldine $£ 1450$ (dr).

In early May 2006, the following information became available.
(1) During the financial year ended 30 April 2006, the partnership had built an office for business use. The building materials used cost $£ 12450$ and had been included in the purchases account; the labour costs of $£ 18240$ had been included in the wages account.
(2) No entry had been made in the accounts to record the use of materials from business stock for work done in Geraldine’s home. The materials cost $£ 2780$.
(3) Included in Tom's drawings was a payment of $£ 600$ cash to his son for work carried out on behalf of the partnership.
(4) A piece of equipment, purchased on 1 May 2003 at a cost of $£ 20000$, was sold on 30 April 2006 for $£ 8000$. The only entries relating to the sale of the equipment were:

Debit - cash $£ 8000$
Credit - sales $£ 8000$
The equipment had been depreciated at $25 \%$ per annum using the straight-line method up to 30 April 2006.

REQUIRED

(a) Prepare a statement showing (i) the effect of each of items (1) to (4) on the draft net profit and (ii) the change in net profit for the year ended 30 April 2006.

|  |  | £ |  |  |

(c) Evaluate the usefulness of maintaining separate capital and current accounts.

Benefits include:
Capital accounts show capital transactions (1) and adjustments (1)
Current accounts contain distributions of profits (1) and drawings of profits (1)
Distinction highlights partners who withdraw more profits than they have earned (0-2)
Makes calculation of interest on capital much easier (0-2)
On the other hand - more work needed (1) so more time-consuming (1) no point unless interest on capital is included in partnership agreement (0-2)

Judgement (0 - 2) must make use of arguments used.

Over the past few years, there has been a growth in the number of retail outlets selling similar goods to those sold by Michael. As a result, Michael's profitability has been declining. This is shown in the following table.

| Year ended 31 March | $\mathbf{2 0 0 3}$ | $\mathbf{2 0 0 4}$ | $\mathbf{2 0 0 5}$ |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| Gross margin | $45 \%$ | $44 \%$ | $44 \%$ |
| Net margin | $19 \%$ | $15 \%$ | $14 \%$ |

Michael, who is 62 years of age, is considering whether or not the time has come for him to sell his business and retire. An estate agent has recently valued the business and believes that it could be sold as a going concern for $£ 150000$.

REQUIRED

(c) Advise Michael whether or not he should sell his business and retire.

Use ratios where appropriate to support your argument.

For retirement (max 4 marks)
Gross margin is falling (1), now $\mathbf{4 2 . 1 2 \%}$ (1) OF

Net margin is falling (1), now $\mathbf{8 . 2 \%}$ (1) OF

Expenses as a proportion of sales are increasing (1), up 8\% OF in 4 years (1)

Against retirement (max 4 marks)

Currently living off £18 $\mathbf{3 6 8}$ (1)

Profits are $£ 25131$ so ROCE is $\mathbf{1 9 . 4 3 \%}$ (1) ( $\mathbf{1 8 . 4 7 \%}$ or $\mathbf{1 8 . 9 4 \%}$ ) which is much better (1) than could be gained from a risk-free investment eg building society (1)

If he invested the proceeds of a sale, he could earn $5 \%$ or $6 \%$ (1) OF which would yield $£ 7500-£ 9000$ (1) OF, half of what he appears to need at current level of drawings (1)

So this might be an appropriate time to retire (1) before business becomes less attractive to a potential buyer (1)

Non-financial factors (maximum $2 \times 2$ marks) eg leisure time; stress; quality time etc

Overall max 7 marks

Advice - from a financial view-point he should not retire (0-2). However, same marks could be gained for a good reasoned argument for retirement, but not purely on the basis of his age (0-2).

2 marks.

Total for Q3 (c): 9 marks

QUALITY OF WRITTEN COMMUNICATION

After the candidate's script has been marked, the work should be assessed for the Quality of W Communication, using the following criteria.

Marks

0 Accounts and financial statements are unclear and poorly presented.
There is little or no attempt to show workings or calculations.
Descriptions and explanations lack clarity and structure.
There is very limited use of specialist vocabulary.
Answers may be legible but only with difficulty.
Errors in spelling, punctuation and grammar are such that meaning is unclear.

1-2 There is some attempt to present accounts and financial statements in an appropriate format. Workings are missing or are not clearly linked to the answers.
Descriptions and explanations are understandable but they lack a logical structure.
There is some use of specialist vocabulary but this is not always applied appropriately. In most cases answers are legible, but errors in spelling, punctuation and grammar are such that meaning may be unclear.

3-4 Accounts and financial statements are generally well presented but there are a few errors. Workings are shown and there is some attempt to link them to the relevant account(s). Descriptions and explanations are usually clearly expressed but there are some weaknesses in the logical structure. There is a good range of specialist vocabulary which is used with facility.
Answers are legible. Spelling is generally accurate and the standard conventions of punctuation and grammar are usually followed.

5 Accounts and financial statements are well organised and clearly presented.
Workings are clearly shown and easy to follow. Descriptions and explanations are clearly expressed.
Arguments are logically structured. There is wide use of specialist vocabulary which is used relevantly and precisely.
Answers are clearly written and legible. Spelling is accurate and the standard conventions of punctuation and grammar are followed so that meaning is clear.
