0 3	Read Item A below and answer the question that follows.
	Item A
	Situational crime prevention strategies aim to reduce the opportunity for crime. These strategies assume that the criminal makes a rational decision to commit crime based on perceived risks and benefits. One prevention strategy is to install a burglar alarm to reduce the risk of being burgled.
	Applying material from Item A , analyse two reasons why situational crime prevention strategies may not be effective in reducing crime. [10 marks]

0 4	Read Item B below and answer the question that follows.
	Item B
	Some functionalist sociologists argue that crime and deviance are caused by the inability of some people to gain the rewards of society, for example because of educational underachievement. Those members of society whose opportunities are blocked cannot achieve the goals of society by socially approved means.
	Applying material from Item B and your knowledge, evaluate the usefulness of functionalist approaches in understanding crime and deviance. [30 marks]

0 6	Read Item C below and answer the question that follows.
	Item C
	Marxists see society as based on conflict between social classes. Those who own the means of production are able to exploit those who do not and are also able to impose their views on society.
	However, different Marxists have different views about the nature of capitalist society and about how social change occurs.
	Applying material from Item C and your knowledge, evaluate the usefulness of Marxist approaches in understanding society. [20 marks]
