Text A

Text A is a transcript of a video clip entitled Goths descend on UK seaside town of Whitby.

In this transcript there are five speakers: a TV presenter, the organiser of the Whitby Goth Weekend, the chair of the Whitby Hospitality Association, and two Goths.

Transcription Key:

- (.) pause of less than a second
- (2.0) longer pause (number of seconds indicated)
- bold stressed syllables

- Presenter: Whitby's charm draws plenty of visitors to the north east coast but twice a year there's a change to the clientele (4.0) Bram Stoker was inspired to write Dracula when he came to visit Whitby in 1890 and his influence has turned it into a modern day Mecca for Goths (2.0) seventeen years ago just two hundred people came for the first ever Goth weekend in the town (1.0) today there are thousands 5
- Organiser: it just started off as a very small event in a little local pub called the Elsinore in Whitby (.) it just exploded (.) it's very diverse (.) you get people (.) you get under eighteens with mums and dads (.) you get erm what we call Goth spotters which are your kind of middle-aged couple coming to soak up the atmosphere and the ambience (.) we get (.) you get a lot of costume dressers now and they can spend like a thousand pounds on an outfit and for them it's all about promenading 10
- Presenter: and there seem to be many reasons why this vibrant and inclusive festival has a place in people's hearts 15
- Female Goth: he proposed to me last year up at the Abbey
- Male Goth: we got our wedding vows blessed just after we got married erm and then tomorrow we're doing the same again
- Presenter: fishing used to be the major industry for Whitby (.) but now they say the fishnet stockings worn by the Goths brings in more cash than the fishing nets themselves (.) and that means that the velvet pound is very welcome in Whitby 20
- Chair: Whitby is a town based on tourism now (.) twenty-five percent of people work in tourism and therefore shops cafes and restaurants are all busy and full (.) it's great (.) really is fantastic
- Presenter: any idea how much money they're bringing in 25
- Chair: probably about thirty to forty pound per person per day here (.) and there's about five thousand Goths we think in Whitby
- Presenter: and with two Goth weekends taking place here annually that means more than a million pounds are injected into Whitby's economy each year so if you miss this one (.) there's a second chance to get Gothic over the next event at Halloween (5.0) Alison Freeman (1.0) BBC news 30
